23	(1) not considering whether to make an adjustment; or
24	(2) choosing not to make an adjustment.
25	Sec. 16. (a) A trustee may give a notice of proposed action
26	regarding a matter governed by this chapter as set forth in this
27	section. For purposes of this section, a proposed action includes a
28	course of action and a decision not to take action.
29	(b) The trustee shall mail notice of the proposed action to all
30	living beneficiaries who:
31	(1) are receiving; or
32	(2) are entitled to receive:
33	(A) income under the trust; or
34	(B) a distribution of principal;
35	if the trust were terminated at the time the notice is given.
36	If a beneficiary described in this subsection is a minor, the trustee
37	may comply with this subsection by mailing the notice to any court
38	appointed or natural guardian of the minor.

- (c) A trustee is not required to give notice of proposed action to any person who consents in writing to the proposed action. The consent may be executed at any time before or after the proposed action is taken.
- (d) The notice of proposed action shall state that the notice is given as set forth in this section and shall state all of the following:
 - (1) The name and mailing address of the trustee.
 - (2) The name and telephone number of a person who may be contacted for additional information.
 - (3) A description of the action proposed to be taken and an explanation of the reasons for the action.
 - (4) The time within which objections to the proposed action may be made, which shall be at least thirty (30) days after the mailing of the notice of proposed action.

- If a beneficiary not entitled to notice objects under this section, the trustee is not liable to any current or future beneficiary with respect to the proposed action.
- (f) If the trustee receives a written objection within the applicable period, either the trustee or a beneficiary may petition the court to have the proposed action taken as proposed, taken with modifications, or denied. A beneficiary who has not objected is not estopped from opposing the proposed action in the proceeding. If the trustee decides not to implement the proposed action, the trustee shall mail notice to the beneficiaries described in subsection (b) of the decision not to take the action. The trustee's decision not to implement the proposed action does not itself give rise to liability to any current or future beneficiary. Within thirty (30) days after the mailing of the notice not to implement the proposed action, a beneficiary may petition the court to have the action taken and has the burden of proving that it should be taken.

Sec. 17. (a) A court shall not change a fiduciary's decision to exercise or not to exercise a discretionary power conferred by this chapter unless it determines that the decision was an abuse of the fiduciary's discretion. A court shall not determine that a fiduciary abused its discretion merely because the court would have exercised the discretion in a different manner or would not have exercised the discretion.

- (b) The decisions to which subsection (a) applies include the following:
 - (1) A determination under section 15(a) of this chapter of whether and to what extent an amount should be transferred from principal to income or from income to principal.
 - (2) In deciding whether and to what extent to exercise the power conferred by section 15(a) of this chapter, a determination of the following:
 - (A) The factors that are relevant to the trust and the trust's beneficiaries.
 - (B) The extent to which the factors are relevant.
 - (C) The weight, if any, to be given to the relevant factors.
- (c) If a court determines that a fiduciary has abused the fiduciary's discretion, the remedy shall be to restore the income and remainder beneficiaries to the positions they would have occupied if the fiduciary had not abused the fiduciary's discretion, subject to the following:
 - (1) To the extent that the abuse of discretion has resulted in no distribution to a beneficiary or a distribution that is too small, the court shall require the fiduciary to distribute to the beneficiary an amount that the court determines will restore the beneficiaries, in whole or in part, to their appropriate positions.
- 38 (2) To the extent that the abuse of discretion has resulted in a

1	distribution to a beneficiary that is too large, the court shall
2	restore the beneficiaries, in whole or in part, to their
3	appropriate positions by requiring:
4	(A) the fiduciary to withhold an amount from at least one
5	(1) future distribution to that beneficiary; or
6	(B) the beneficiary to return some or all of the distribution
7	to the trust.
8	(3) To the extent the court is unable, after applying
9	subdivisions (1) and (2), to restore the beneficiaries to the
.0	positions they would have occupied if the fiduciary had not
1	abused the fiduciary's discretion, the court shall require the
2	fiduciary to pay an appropriate amount to:
.3	(A) at least one (1) of the beneficiaries;
4	(B) the trust; or
.5	(C) entities under both clauses (A) and (B).
6	(d) Upon a petition by the fiduciary, the court having
7	jurisdiction over the trust or estate shall determine whether a
8	proposed exercise or nonexercise of a discretionary power by the
9	fiduciary will result in an abuse of the fiduciary's discretion. The
20	petition shall:
21	(1) describe the proposed exercise or nonexercise of the
22	power;
23	(2) contain sufficient information to inform the beneficiaries
24	of:
25	(A) the reasons for the proposal; and
26	(B) the facts upon which the fiduciary relies; and
27	(3) contain an explanation of how the income and remainder
28	beneficiaries will be affected by the proposed exercise or
29	nonexercise of the power.
80	(e) A beneficiary who challenges a fiduciary's proposed decision
31	or actual decision to exercise or not to exercise a discretionary
32	power conferred by this chapter shall have the burden of
33	establishing that it will result or did result in an abuse of
34	discretion.".
